Three Join GWWO

Erin E. Anello, Amanda J. Brown and Michael N. Tillman have joined GWWO, Inc./Architects.

Ms. Anello joins GWWO as the firm's new Marketing Coordinator. In this role, she will support all marketing, promotion and business development activities. Ms. Anello is a member of the Society for Marketing Professional Services (SMPS), and is a recent graduate of Loyola College in Maryland where she earned a Bachelor of Business Administration degree with a concentration in marketing.

A recent graduate of Virginia Tech with a Bachelor of Architecture degree, Ms. Brown joins the GWWO architectural staff as an intern architect. She is currently a member of the design team for the expansion and renovation of Southgate Elementary School in Anne Arundel County.

Mr. Tillman joins GWWO as the firm's new Chief Financial Officer. Mr. Tillman has more than 20 years experience serving in financial leadership roles for companies in the architecture, insurance, manufacturing and healthcare industries. He holds a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from Towson University.

GWWO, Inc. is a full service architectural firm that specializes in the planning and design of cultural and educational facilities, with emphasis on quality design that is both inspirational and evocative. Current projects include the new visitor center for Fort McHenry National Monument and Historic Shrine in Baltimore, Maryland; the expansion of the Washington College Gibson Performing Arts Center in Chestertown, Maryland; and the renovation of Dunbar High School in Baltimore City.
